IRISH UNIVERSITIES ACT, 1908.

A STATUTE FOR UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, GALWAY.

WHEREAS His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh was graciously pleased, in pursuance of the provisions of the Irish Universities Act, 1908, to constitute and found a new University having its seat in Dublin, and to direct that the said University should bear the name of the National University of Ireland.

AND WHEREAS by sub-section (3) of section 2 of the said Act, Queen's College, Galway, the name of which His said late Majesty was graciously pleased, in pursuance of the said sub-section, to alter to University College, Galway, is a Constituent College of the said University.

AND WHEREAS by section 4 of the said Act the Statutes for the general government of the Constituent Colleges of the said University were directed to be made in the first instance by the Dublin Commissioners appointed under the said Act, and after the powers of the said Dublin Commissioners determined, by the governing bodies of the said Constituent Colleges.

AND WHEREAS the said Dublin Commissioners, under and by virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, duly made Statutes for University College, Galway (to be cited as Statute I. and Statute II. of University College, Galway), given under their Common Seal, bearing date respectively the 15th day of April, 1911, and the 7th day of July, 1911.

AND WHEREAS the powers of the said Dublin Commissioners determined on the 31st day of July, 1911.

AND WHEREAS, We, the Governing body of University College, Galway, did on the 20th day of February, 1914, by resolution, provisionally adopt the proposed Statute (to be cited as Statute III. of University College, Galway), set out in the Schedule hereof.

AND WHEREAS a copy of said proposed Statute was communicated on the 21st day of February, 1914, to the Academic Council of the said College.

AND WHEREAS, We, the said Governing Body have considered any representations on the subject of said proposed Statute, made to us by the said Academic Council, within two months from the said 21st day of February, 1914, and have by a resolution adopted at our Meeting held this 1st day of May, 1914, by a majority of the Members of the said Governing Body now holding office confirmed the resolution to make the said proposed Statute with certain amendments.

AND WHEREAS a copy of the said proposed Statute has, at least seven days before the said 1st day of May, 1914, been sent to each Member of the Governing Body, to the Registrar of the National University of Ireland, and also to the Secretary of University College, Dublin, and to the Secretary of University College, Cork.

NOW WE, THE GOVERNING BODY OF UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, GALWAY, under and by virtue of the powers in that behalf conferred on us by the said Act, Do by this present instrument under the Seal of University College, Galway, make the Statute contained in the Schedule hereof for the general government of the said College.

Given under the Common Seal of University College,
Galway, this 1st day of May, One Thousand
Nine Hundred and Fourteen.

[L.S.]

Present when the Common Seal of University College,
Galway, was affixed.

ALEX. ANDERSON, President.

J. P. PYE, Registrar.

SCHEDULE.

STATUTE III.

1. Chapter XIII. of Statute I., University College, Galway, is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof is hereby substituted the Chapter following:—

CHAPTER XIII.

1. There shall be the following Professorships in the College:—A Professorship of Irish Language, Philology and Literature, of Greek, of Latin, of Mathematics, of Physics, of English Language and English Literature, of Chemistry, of Natural History, Geology and Mineralogy, of Civil Engineering, of Modern Languages, of Anatomy and Physiology, of Jurisprudence and Political Economy, of English Law, of Medicine, of Surgery, of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, of Materia Medica and Pharmacy, of Pathology, of Electrical Engineering, of History (with special reference to Irish History), of Philosophy, of Commerce and Accountancy, of Education, of Ophthalmology and Otology.

Upon the occurrence of any vacancy (other than a vacancy caused by the expiration of the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the late Royal University of Ireland) in any of the following Professorships whereby the present Professor shall cease to hold the same office, viz., the Professorship of Physics, of Natural History, Geology and Mineralogy, of Modern Languages, of Anatomy and Physiology, such Professorship shall be extinguished, and there shall be in the College in lieu of the Professorship of Physics, a Professorship of Experimental Physics, and a Professorship of Mathematical Physics, and in lieu of the Professorship of Natural History, Geology and Mineralogy, a Professorship of Natural History, and a Professorship of Geology and Mineralogy, and in lieu of the Professorship of Modern Languages, a Professorship of Romance Languages and a Professorship of German, and in lieu of the Professorship of Anatomy and Physiology, a Professorship of Anatomy, and a Professorship of Physiology.

Provided that the Professorship of Electrical Engineering shall not be filled until the Lectureship in Electrical Engineering shall on resignation of the Lecturer.

conditional on his being appointed to the Professorship of Electrical Engineering herein instituted, or otherwise, be extinguished.

Provided also that the Professorship of Commerce and Accountancy, the Professorship of Education, and the Professorship of Ophthalmology and Otology shall become vacant, if and when the increase of £2,000 provided by Parliament in the grant for annual expenditure assigned to the College under Part I of the Third Schedule to the Act, and the annual sum of not less than £1,500 placed at the disposal of the College by the County Councils of the Counties of Mayo, Leitrim, Galway, Roscommon, Sligo, and Clare, or any of them (which said increase in the said grant provided by Parliament and said annual sum of not less than £1,500 are hereinafter referred to as "the additional income of the College") shall be determined or cease to be so placed at the disposal of the College; and provided that, if in any event the additional income of the College shall not be available during any period, such Professorship of Commerce and Accountancy, such Professorship of Education, and such Professorship of Ophthalmology and Otology shall not be filled during such period; but in the event of such additional income of the College again becoming available all such offices shall forthwith be filled, upon such additional income of the College again becoming available.

Subject to the rights of the present holder, the Professorship of History, English Literature, and Mental Science instituted by Chapter XIII. of said Statute I. of University College, Galway, shall, on the occurrence of the first vacancy in such Professorship, be extinguished, but until such first vacancy shall occur said Professorship shall continue.

The Professorship of English Language and English Literature, the Professorship of History (with special reference to Irish History), and the Professorship of Philosophy hereby instituted shall not be filled until the occurrence of such first vacancy in the Professorship of History, English Literature, and Mental Science, whether on resignation of the present holder of said office, conditional upon his being appointed to such Professorship of English Language and English Literature, or otherwise.

2. There shall be the following Lectureships in the College:—A Lectureship in Modern Irish Language, a Lectureship in Electrical Engineering, two Lectureships in Medical Jurisprudence and Hygiene, a Lectureship in Fever Cases, a Lectureship in Mental Diseases, and a Lectureship in Operative Surgery.

Provided that the Lectureship in Mental Diseases, and the Lectureship in Operative Surgery, shall become vacant if and when the increase of £2,000 provided by Parliament in the grant for an annual expenditure assigned to the College under Part I. of the Third Schedule to the Act, and the annual sum of not less than £1,500 placed at the disposal of the College by the County Councils of the Counties of Mayo, Leitrim, Galway, Roscommon, Sligo, and Clare, or any of them (which said increase in the said grant provided by Parliament, and said annual sum of not less than £1,500 are hereinafter referred to as "the additional income of the College") shall be determined or cease to be placed at the disposal of the College; and provided that, if in any event the additional income of the College shall not be available during any period, such Lectureship in Mental Diseases, and such Lectureship in Operative Surgery shall not be filled during such period; but in the event of such additional income of the College again becoming available, both such Lectureships shall forthwith be filled upon such additional income of the College again becoming available.

Provided also upon the occurrence of any vacancy (other than a vacancy caused by the expiration of the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the late Royal University of Ireland), in the Lectureship in Electrical Engineering whereby the present Lecturer shall cease to hold the same office, such Lectureship shall be forthwith extinguished.

Sections 9 and 10 of Chapter XV. are hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof the following sections 9 and 10 are hereby substituted :—

9. Saving the rights of existing officers, and save as regards any Professor appointed during the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the Royal University, each Professor shall, subject to good conduct and the due fulfilment of his duties, continue in office until he shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, and may thereafter be continued by the Senate in office for five further years.

PROVIDED that this further continuance in office is recommended to the Senate of the University by the Governing Body, with the approval of the President, and is sanctioned by the Senate annually.

PROVIDED also that the holder of any Professorship instituted by this statute, which is liable to become vacant in the event of and upon the additional income of the College determining or ceasing to be placed at the disposal of the College, shall cease forthwith upon the occurrence of such event to hold office, but shall be eligible for re-election in the event of such Professorship again being filled, under the provisions of this Statute.

10. Saving the right of existing officers, and save as regards any Lecturer appointed during the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the Royal University, each Lecturer shall hold office for seven years, and shall be eligible for re-election until he shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, and may thereafter be continued by the Senate in office for five further years.

PROVIDED that this further continuance in office is recommended to the Senate of the University by the Governing Body, with the approval of the President, and is sanctioned by the Senate annually.

PROVIDED also that the holder of any Lectureship instituted by this statute, which is liable to become vacant in the event of and upon the additional income of the College determining or ceasing to be placed at the disposal of the College, shall cease forthwith upon the occurrence of such event to hold office, but shall be eligible for re-election in the event of such Lectureship again being filled under the provisions of this Statute.

3. Section 1 of Chapter XI. of Statute I. of University College, Galway, is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof is hereby substituted the Section following:—

CHAPTER XI.

THE FACULTIES.

1. The Professors and Lecturers within the College shall be distributed amongst the following Faculties:—

- Arts, including Philosophy.
- Celtic Studies.
- Science.

- Engineering and Architecture.
- Commerce.

4. Section 1 of Chapter XIX. of said Statute I. is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof the following is hereby substituted:—

CHAPTER XIX.

OFFICERS OF THE COLLEGE.

1. There shall be a Registrar, a Bursar, and a Librarian, who shall be selected from the Professors and Lecturers of the College, and also a Secretary, a Lady

Superintendent, and two or more Deans of Residence as the Governing Body may from time to time appoint. In addition, the Governing Body may appoint the Principal or Head of any recognized hostel as an officer of the College under the title of Warden, with or without remuneration as the Governing Body may decide.

5. Chapter XX. of Statute I. is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof the following Chapter XX. and XX. "A" is hereby substituted.

CHAPTER XX.

THE REGISTRAR.

1. A Registrar shall be selected from among the Professors and Lecturers of the College.

2. He shall receive a stipend of £75 a year, and shall in addition, be entitled to residence, fuel, and light.

3. A Registrar appointed after the expiration of the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the Royal University shall, subject to good conduct and the due fulfilment of the duties of his office, hold office until he shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, or until his resignation. After attaining that age, a Registrar may be continued in office by the Governing Body from year to year.

Provided that such further continuance in office is recommended to the Governing Body by the President; and that in no case shall a Registrar continue or be continued in office after he shall have ceased to be a Professor or Lecturer in the College.

4. The Registrar shall attend in his office at such times as the President shall appoint, and shall attend the Meetings of the Academic Council, and, when required, those of the Governing Body.

5. He shall take general charge of the buildings and property of the College; and for this purpose shall reside within the College precincts, unless his absence be permitted by the President, or unless his presence be required in Dublin on the business of the University, in which case he shall notify his absence to the President.

6. He shall keep the Registers of the College in such manner and subject to such directions as may be prescribed.

7. He shall furnish to each Dean of Residence the particulars of the names and addresses of each student who shall have entered under him, and to each Tutor, should such be appointed, the particulars of the names, addresses, and Courses of Study of each Student who shall have been assigned to such Tutor; and shall also furnish to each Dean of a Faculty particulars of the names, addresses, and Courses of Study of each Student pursuing Courses of Study within the scope of the Faculty.

8. He shall prepare and issue under the direction of the President to each Member of the Academic Council the summonses for its Meetings.

9. He shall prepare, under the direction of the Academic Council, programmes of all Examinations.

10. He shall also prepare and forward, under the direction of the President, all other documents relating to the University which the Chancellor or Senate may require, and shall preserve copies of the same.

11. He shall carry on under the direction of the President the correspondence of the College, so far as it relates to Academic matters.

12. He shall keep a record of the transactions of the Academic Council.

13. He shall, when required by the President or Governing Body, prepare the official documents of the College, and shall preserve copies of the same.

14. He shall carry out the instructions of the Governing Body, in such other reasonable ways as the Governing Body shall prescribe for the maintenance of discipline and good conduct in the Students, and for the general business of the College.

15 (a) He shall preserve all books, records, or documents committed to his care by the President or Academic Council;

(b) He shall not allow any books, records, or documents committed to his care by the President or Academic Council to be removed by persons without the written permission of the President or of the Governing Body, or to be read or inspected by any person other than the President, a Member of the Governing Body, or of the Academic Council, without the written permission of the President, or of the Governing Body, or of the Academic Council.

(c) He shall observe due secrecy with respect to all his official matters;

(d) He shall sign a Declaration that he will perform the duties prescribed by this Section.

16. He shall preserve all such muniments, records, writings, and documents as may be entrusted to him, and shall do all such other acts and perform all such other duties in relation to the College as by the Statutes or Regulations he may be required to do or perform.

XX "A."

THE SECRETARY.

1. A Secretary appointed after the expiration of the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the Royal University, shall, subject to good conduct and the due fulfilment of the duties of his office, hold office until he shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, or until his resignation. After attaining that age, a Secretary may be continued in office by the Governing Body from year to year.

PROVIDEN that such further continuance in office is recommended to the Governing Body by the President.

2. The Secretary shall receive a salary of £75 a year, and, so long as the additional income of the College shall continue, £25 additional a year during such period.

3. He shall, before entering on his office, give to the College such security, and to such amount, for the faithful discharge of his duties as the Governing Body shall deem sufficient.

4. He shall keep a Register of Members of the Governing Body.

5. He shall give notices, send voting papers, make returns, and do and perform all such other acts and duties in relation to elections of Members of the Senate or of the Governing Body, as by the Statutes of the University or by these Statutes he is required to do or perform.

6. He shall prepare and make copies of all College documents which the President or Governing Body may require.

7. When required by the President, he shall keep a list of the recognised lodging houses, and of the Students resident therein.

8. He shall inspect and report on the condition of the recognised lodging houses when required to do so by the President.

9. He shall act as Secretary to the Governing Body and its Committees, and shall carry out all such directions in respect of administrative matters as he may receive from the President; and the Secretary shall do all such other acts and perform all such other duties in relation to the College as by the Statutes and Regulations he may be required to do or perform.

10. (a) He shall preserve all books, records, or documents committed to his care by the Governing Body, or by the Finance Committee, or by the President;

(b) He shall not allow any books, records, or documents committed to his care by the Governing Body, or by the Finance Committee, or by the President, to be removed without the written permission of the President or of the Governing Body, or to be read or inspected by any person other than the President or a Member of the Governing Body, without the written permission of the Governing Body or the President;

(c) He shall observe due secrecy with respect of all official matters;

(d) He shall sign a Declaration that he will perform the duties prescribed by this Section.

11. He shall carry on under the direction of the President all the correspondence of the College with the Elective Bodies.

12. He shall conduct, under the directions of the President, such correspondence as the Governing Body shall prescribe.

13. He shall carry out the instructions of the Governing Body in such other reasonable ways as the Governing Body shall prescribe for the general business of the College.

14. He shall perform such duties in respect of the Entrance Scholarship Examinations as may be assigned to him by the Academic Council, subject to review by the Governing Body.

15. He shall collect information with respect to appointments open to Graduates and Students of the College, and he shall supply such information in such manner as may be from time to time directed by the President.

6. In lieu of the words "the Registrar," wherever the same occur in the following Chapters and Sections of Statute I., University College, Galway, viz.:—Chapter IV., Section 24, Chapter VI., Sections 1, 3, 40, 47, 49, 51, 52, Chapter XIV., Section 1 (f), Section 1 (g), Section 1 (m), Section II. (e), II. (f), II. (m), the words "the Secretary" are hereby substituted.

In lieu of the words "the Registrar" in Chapter VI., Section 9, of said Statute I., the words "the Secretary or other proper officer" are hereby instituted.

Section 38 of Chapter VI. of said Statute I. is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof the following is substituted:—

38. Immediately after any such election by the Senate the Registrar of the University and immediately after any such election by the Academic Council or by the Graduates, the Registrar or other proper officer of the College shall give notice thereof to the Secretary or other proper officer of the College.

7. Chapter XXIV. of said Statute I. is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof the following Chapter XXIV. and XXIV. "A" is hereby substituted.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE LADY SUPERINTENDENT.

1. The Governing Body shall have power, if it shall think fit so to do, to make provision for the remuneration of the Lady Superintendent in such manner as it may determine.

2. The Governing Body shall require every Woman Student-Member of the College, and also such non-Matriculated Women-Students of the College as Regulations may prescribe, to enter under the Lady Superintendent.

3. The Lady Superintendent shall :—

(a) Exercise supervision over the conduct of all Women-Students within the precincts of the College, and report thereon as may seem necessary to her to the President; and

(b) Perform such other duties within or without the College in regard to the discipline and to all matters pertaining to the good conduct and behaviour of Women-Students as the Academic Council shall, subject to review by the Governing Body, prescribe by Regulations.

4. The President shall either deal with the report of the Lady Superintendent himself, or, if he shall think fit so to do, bring the matter of the report before the Academic Council.

XXIV "A."

THE DEANS OF RESIDENCE.

1. The Governing Body shall require every Student-Member of the College and such non-Matriculated Students as Regulations may prescribe to enter under such one of the Deans of Residence as, subject to the direction of his parents or guardians, he may choose.

2. The Governing Body shall have power, if it shall think fit so to do, to make provision for the remuneration of the Deans of Residence in such manner as it may determine.

3. A Dean of Residence shall exercise supervision over the general conduct, outside the precincts of the College, of the Students who have entered under him, and especially shall satisfy himself that each pupil not living with his parents or guardians is in a hostel or lodging-house recognized by the College.

4. For this purpose the Deans of Residence shall co-operate with the Registrar in drawing up a list of recognized lodging-houses for the information of Students and their parents and guardians.

5. Any Dean of Residence who is dissatisfied with the situation or character of the lodging-house occupied by any of his Students may require him to leave the same, and on the refusal of the Student to do so shall report the matter to the President.

6. Each Dean of Residence shall be supplied by the Registrar at the commencement of each Session with the names of the Students who have entered under the Dean, and shall report upon their conduct as may seem necessary to him to the President.

7. The President shall either deal with the reports himself, or, if he shall think fit so to do, bring the matter of the report before the Academic Council.

PENSIONS.

8. 1. In addition to the annual sum of not less than £800 directed to be set apart by Chapter XXV, of said Statute I. of University College, Galway, as a fund for the purpose of securing the pensions payable at the date of the making of said Statute to retired Professors and other Officers of the College, and also the pensions that might thereafter become payable to the existing President and to such of the existing Professors and other Officers of the College as might be entitled to pensions under the Act, there shall be set apart an annual sum of £230 so long as the increase of £2,000 provided by Parliament in the grant for annual expenditure assigned to the College under Part I. of the Third Schedule to the Act shall continue. Such additional sum shall be applied for the following purposes:—

(a) to give further security for the payment of the pensions mentioned in the prior part of this section,

(b) to provide pensions or other benefits on retirement for any President or Professor or Lecturer or other Officers of the College who may be appointed after the expiration of the period of seven years from the date of the dissolution of the Royal University.

PROVIDED that the said additional sum of £230 so set apart may be used with the said annual sum of not less than £800 as a security for borrowing a capital sum should the necessity arise; but the sum so borrowed, and its accretions, if any, shall be devoted exclusively to the payment of pensions.

2. Sections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of said Chapter XXV. of said Statute I. shall apply to the said annual sum of £230 set apart under this statute as if the said sum of £230 were therein expressly mentioned.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

9. In the interpretation of the Statutes and Regulations the words "The Officers" shall, unless there be something in the context repugnant thereto, have the meaning hereby assigned to them, that is to say—

"The Officers" includes the Registrar, the Secretary, the Bursar, the Librarian, the Lady Superintendent, the Deans of Residence, and the Warden of any recognized hostel, but does not include clerks or servants.

Date of Coming into Operation.

This Statute shall not affect any appointment made, right acquired, liability incurred, or act done under any previous Statute of the College.

This Statute shall come into operation on the first day of May, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fourteen.

This Statute shall be construed with and as part of Statute I. of University College, Galway, and may be cited as Statute III. of University College, Galway, or Stat. III. of Univ. Coll., Galway.
